

Teach Seniors Technology Code of Conduct

Philosophy:

The objective of the Teach Seniors Technology is to help bridge the gap between generations by use of technology so that seniors continue to play a meaningful role in the lives of their loved ones and stay connected.

The code of conduct sets forth the standards of conduct expected of the members who join Teach Seniors Technology organization.

Members who violate these standards will be subject to disciplinary actions including but not limited to removal from the organization and cease any representation for and on its behalf.

All materials, teaching aids, presentations etc created by the Members during the course of membership of the organization shall belong exclusively to the organization.

Responsibility of the Member:

Member confirms that he/she will demonstrate and practice compassion, sincerity and willingness to assist seniors at all times.

Members shall treat other members of the organization with respect, honesty and trust.

Each Member undertakes to promote the organization's avowed objectives and sign up to serve as many senior communities as possible.

Each Member shall be ready and willing to participate in the programs of the organization when requested to do so.

Once a Member signs up to serve on a program, the Member will make sincere good faith efforts to make himself/herself available in order to make the program successful.

A Member shall not start, commence, found another organization with the same or similar objectives. Nothing shall be done by a Member that competes with the intent and purposes of the organization.

Benefits to Members:

So long as the person remains Member of the organization, he/she will be entitled to use the resources of the organization in promotion and teaching.

Each Member shall use the approved presentation slides and method/manner of teaching.

Each Member shall be entitled draw upon the experience and knowledge of the other Members in accomplishing their tasks.

BY JOINING THE ORGANIZATION EACH MEMBER CONFIRMS TO ABIDE BY THE ABOVE CODE OF CONDUCT